

James Farmer

June 28, 1934 - August 4, 2020

James Norman Farmer, 86, of Greenwood, husband of Mary Elizabeth “Lib” Waters Morgan Farmer, died Tuesday, August 4, 2020 at McCormick Rehab and Health Care.

Born in Ohatchee, AL, he was the son of the late Joe S. and Pauline Tune Farmer. James was a U. S. Navy veteran and was formerly employed with Schlumberger. He attended First Assembly of God.

He was twice married, first to the late Harriet Farmer.

Surviving in addition to his wife of the home are a son, Roger Farmer of Greenwood; a daughter in law, Pamela Cox Kelly; a stepdaughter, Cindy McCartney (Jay) of Banner Elk, NC; three grandchildren, Devin Cox, Peggy Thomas and Michael Windham; and five great grandchildren.

No services are planned.

Comments

“ Jim was like a brother to me. We would watch the Atlanta Braves together and make comments about the game. I will miss him vary much. I am glad that he is not suffering anymore and I share Lib's grief and wish her the best.

Eugene Boyd - August 07, 2020 at 10:45 AM