“ To Jimmy's family,
Please know that I am grieving over his loss, though my health prevents me from traveling to his services. Jimmy was always a high point in my life, and he will surely be missed. When I think back on all the memories we had together, it's hard to imagine losing him, though it's comforting to me that he's back with Sally. God bless you all.

“ Dear Cynthia, Patricia, Libby and Families, and the Knight Family,
I am very sorry for your loss.
I had the pleasure of working with Jimmy on two occasions at Greenwood Mills. He had a gift in dealing with associates and work related situations. Also, an incredible sense of humor, I still remember many stories! He was a good man, and I will always remember working with him. God Bless each of you.
Sincerely,
