

Joe Pracht

October 19, 1939 - May 2, 2020

Joseph Michael Pracht, 80, resident of Wellmore of Lexington, husband of Ann Robinson Wood Pracht, passed away Saturday, May 2, 2020.

Born in Bristol, TN, he was a son of the late John Christopher and Ann White Pracht. Joe was an attorney in private practice and was a member of Round Hill Baptist Church, taught home bible studies, and was an ordained minister.

Surviving in addition to his wife, Anne of Lexington, are his children, Jennifer Pracht-Blais (John) and Andrew Lowndes Pracht, both of Mt. Pleasant; stepchildren, Sheila Wood of Columbia, Bob Wood (Cynthia) of Marietta, GA, and David Wood (Jennifer) of Michigan; brother, Andrew W. Pracht (Mary) of Hilton Head; and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a brother, John C. Pracht, II.

A private graveside service will be held. A webcast of the service will be available on Saturday by visiting Joe's life tribute page at www.harleyfuneralhome.com, where you can also leave messages for the family.

Memorials may be made to Humane Society of Greenwood, PO Box 49776, Greenwood, SC 29649 (www.gwdhumansociety.org).

“ Joe was a dear friend who lived life to its fullest. My sister Pat worked for his Dad, Mr. John, and years later, I met Joe as his law office was on second floor above our savings & loan. He would leap up the steps...no time for the elevator! He & Ted were the perfect partners. Joe certainly knew his craft...handled many things for me through the years, nothing ever too difficult for him to solve. It was a joy to know Joe...he truly loved his children, Anne, his Saviour, good friends & life itself. Good night, Sweet Friend! We will see you again in Our Father's House. Love, Miriam C. Bagwell, Clemson, S.C.

“ I was just a 24 year old kid when Joe Pracht offered me a job in 1995. I remember walking out of the interview and thinking “This man is spastic and there is no way I can work for him” but Joe was persistent and it was the best decision I ever made. I quickly learned that his bark was far worse than his bite, that he had a heart of gold and would give you the shirt off of his back. We developed a genuine friendship and I loved and respected everything about him. Joe took me under his wing and taught me all I needed to know about the legal and real estate world and even gave me the nickname Bigun. He was very straightforward and only knew two speeds – fast and wide open! Joe adored Mrs. Anne, loved the beach and enjoyed going out to dinner with their friends Earl and Janice. He was one of a kind and I will miss my Josey.

My thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Anne, their children and the rest of the family and hope that they find peace and comfort during this time.

“ So sad to hear of Joe's passing. I did not get to know him well, but from what I do know he is walking with Jesus and taking care of heavenly business. He was a loving and loyal husband who loved Anne and did his best to care for her. I am certain he will be missed in so many ways.
Blessing and prayers to all the family during this time of separation and grief of your loved one.

“ So very so to hear of Joe’s passing. He certainly added to our family Christmas’ in Bluffton , which I am thankful we were able to share with him, Aunt Annie Lou, mom and dad, and Jackie and Dean. Jimbo enjoyed their conversations, and Joe made me feel like I was a really good cook! He always went back for seconds! Our condolences and prayers to the entire family.
