“ My deepest sympathy goes to Stephanie’s family members and closest friends. It is very sad to hear of the loss of someone with such a brilliant spark. She was one of my first college, off campus roommates, and I’m grateful to have known her during such a creative time. Life hands us such a variety of blessings and hardships. Bless you, Stephanie. <3

“ I worked for Stephanie at Self. I loved her sense of humor and her love of her baby boy was so great. Such a loss to all that knew her.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Stephanie’s passing. Such a sweet soul, gone way too soon. I was Stephanie’s college roommate. I have so many wonderful memories of her. Over the past few years, we had reconnected through social media and I always enjoyed our Facebook chats and her emails. The world will be a lot less bright without her in it. Sending love and hugs to all of you.

“ There is so much I cherish about my relationship with Stephanie. She was my student at Greenwood High, a creative and expressive writer, and a good friend in the years since her English class with me. She participated in the book club I sponsored at GHS, visited with me at my home, and most recently, I received a beautiful illustrated Thanksgiving letter from her last fall. At that time, my brother had recently died and Stephanie and I shared our sorrow at being without our brothers. On a more upbeat note, I remember and still keep one of the funniest compositions I've ever read about a student (Stephanie) about to take the SAT! I am heartbroken at Stephanie's death. I loved her.
